From Shannon DeArmond - St Lukes Woodland to Everyone: 05:10 PM

Some of our ministry leaders are asking us for some simple how-to documentation for using zoom in the church. Does anyone have anything like that they would be willing to share before I reinvent the wheel?

From Jay Elmquist to Everyone: 05:14 PM

Shannon, Zoom tips are on the website, here: <https://trinitycathedral.org/>

They were also in the eNews this week.

From James Richardson to Everyone: 05:18 PM

That was on my Facebook. Happy to send the photo to anyone who wants to see it.

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:19 PM

Yes, we will have some Stations of the Cross options available.

From Richard Yale to Everyone: 05:27 PM

Our question at St. John's is how many giving platforms are too many? Is there a saturation point?

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:27 PM

I gave! It took me 30 seconds. I timed it. SUPER Easy

From Jay Elmquist to Everyone: 05:30 PM

I give my pledge online with Realm. It's very easy to set up a reoccurring offering.

The VTS webinars are also available in the right hand sidebar of the Holy Week @ Home page as well:

<http://www.norcalepiscopal.org/holy-week-home>

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:31 PM

For the Holy Week resources: our team is curating the VTS offerings - it is quite massive - as well as adjusting the Triduum booklet for our diocesan/at home use. That will all go up on our Holy Week @ Home page over the next day.

From James Richardson to Everyone: 05:33 PM

I am looking forward to the curated material (I was on the VTS webinar and have the unabridged material — it is a lot)

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:40 PM

In many churches, the roster is being divided up and people are sharing the role of calling.

From Randy Knutson to Everyone: 05:41 PM

What would you say to lay leaders who are adamant against online giving?

From James Richardson to Everyone: 05:42 PM

I'd say mail a check.

From John Miller to Everyone: 05:43 PM

Any advice for connecting with members with dementia?

From Bob Wohlsen to Everyone: 05:44 PM

March 26, 2020 – Covid-19 Response Call – Chat with suggestions and links.

At St Patrick's we are organizing the process to invite parishioners and the greater community to contact the church and request prayer. They'll be able to leave a message for a prayer or receive a call back to have a person pray with them. I'd be glad to share our process when it's active.

From Kati Braak to Everyone: 05:47 PM

Randy - it is a larger conversation about their issues surrounding this trend. This technology is being embraced by churches, nonprofits, and corporations globally.

Questions to explore re online giving: Why online giving is so popular? Investigate possible security concerns. Talk through the spiritual implications of this change. Discuss what could be gained from this shift.

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:48 PM

Dementia ideas: Visio Divina with icon and other images. Also MUSIC: recording, or singing, and using familiar music moments to connect.

From Randy Knutson to Everyone: 05:48 PM

Thanks. How do we save all these chat suggestions?

From Kati Braak to Everyone: 05:49 PM

You can highlight, copy and paste the chat suggestions.

From Jay Elmquist to Everyone: 05:49 PM

Do you see the white button with 3 dots just above the area where you type your chat message?

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:49 PM

We are saving the chat

From Jay Elmquist to Everyone: 05:49 PM

You can press that if you see it and save the chat.

From Kati Braak to Everyone: 05:50 PM

If you'd like a transcript you can email Peggy@norcalepiscopal.org and she will send you a copy!
