Zoom/Fellowship/Coffee Hour

I'm wondering how some churches have had virtual fellowship/coffee hour on Zoom. How has this been organized and facilitated? Has it been open ended or have people each been given a chance to share?

- Zoom coffee hour - We have a light, fun question of the week (i.e. tell us a story about your coffee mug) and I call on folks to share one at a time. Next week we're showing off home-made Easter hats.
- Weekly Fellowship gathering where everyone has the opportunity to share how they are doing. Last week we inserted a few fun Bible quiz polling questions. This week we are making the Agape Supper part of the gathering. I act as moderator for each of these Zoom meetings.

Question regarding Zoom use. I've read several articles warning about recording Zoom meetings. We would like to record our Zoom Easter service and then upload to Facebook for others to see. Is there guidance on this?

- Our policy is not to record the fellowship portion, especially any meeting when children might be present (except mine!) but we use Zoom to both record and simultaneously live-stream to Facebook. Zoom has a button for this. Then the video recording remains on Facebook.

When have you held the virtual coffee hours? Right after worship or some other time? Did you facilitate this from the church office or from home later after the service?

- Right after service, facilitated from the church office
- One Zoom capability we are using is screen sharing— we screen share the bulletin in a powerpoint so everyone can follow along. Also having someone at a different location from me manage the zoom (screen-share, highlighting speakers) helps a lot; I think it might help with bandwidth and it definitely helps with me not leading worship and managing tech!

April 6, 2020 – Covid-19 Response Call – Resources with links

How does Zoom compare to Facebook Live for doing Sunday or other worship?

- Zoom requires an invitation to join. Facebook Live anyone can join.
- We are finding that people assume they cannot just call in to Zoom, and so need additional coaching on this.
- Reminder: Zoom will NOW need to include passwords; a change since the weekend.

Resources for children

- Children's links on our Holy Week @ Home webpage: <http://www.norcalepiscopal.org/holy-week-home>
- We are doing a children's chapel on FB Live about 15 minutes after the main worship. Canon Kathy uses her felt board and other props. We've had 250 viewers of the children's chapel Sunday.

Does anyone have some on-line links to send to elementary age kids?

- Godly play foundation YouTube channel
- Check out the FORMA group on Facebook - many resources there, including a video series that is quite good.

- There was an interesting article regarding the PPP applications in the Santa Rosa Press Democrat this morning. Basically it encourages us to apply sooner than later.

Bishop Megan – Worship schedule during Holy Week and available resources

- The sermon will be a video and shared through YouTube
- We will post the sermon with YouTube link on the diocesan website and will send out the link via blast as well
- Bishop will be preaching at the Cathedral for the Vigil. 7:30pm

Treasurer Meeting

If our treasurer missed that meeting, is there a way to get the information that was discussed?

- Treasures who did NOT get the information - please email me kati@norcalepiscopal.org
- Our treasurer found the Zoom call VERY helpful! Thank you for reaching out to them Katie! We've added the staff of the Office of the Bishop to our daily prayers and PotP.

Music and licensing

RE Music, the Late Night shows are all broadcasting from home with musicians performing from their homes, via Zoom. Has anyone figured out how to do that with their church musicians?

- Music of each service recorded and posted 30 minutes before service for people to listen and enjoy.
- I was referring to downloading the sheet music for the bulletins. CCVLI has a $200 yearly subscription for broadcasting copyrighted material (showing movies, playing music) which covers the licensing.
- OneLicense has a free license offer right now during COVID, which includes streaming.
- OneLicense is free until the 15th.
- One License - <https://news.onelicense.net/2020/03/13/one-license-offers-gratis-licenses-to-help-cope-with-covid-19-challenges-valid-through-april-15/>

Misc.

Church Publishing used to have RiteSeries available on a per-service level. The new resources are only available on a $300+ yearly subscription. It would be great to have the diocese advocate for resources for smaller congregations.

We have a six-week reading guide for “Matthew Groups” if anyone would like to have it.
