Our church group meets on Wednesday afternoons. What will the bank tellers think?

From John Miller to Everyone: 05:21 PM

At his Tuesday afternoon Gov. Newsom invited business to submit proposal on how they could reopen safely while maintaining the needed physical distancing. Are we coordinating with other religious leaders to develop standards that would allow us to return to in-person worship and communicating those ideas to the appropriate state agencies?

RE-OPENING/RE-GATHERING:

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:24 PM

TIMELINE: Plan for online worship through at least May 31.

From Kati Braak to Everyone: 05:26 PM

Shared by Susanne Baillie, Interim Legal Counsel, Presiding Bishop's Office:

The general consensus from the CDC, the American Enterprise Institute, the John Hopkins Center for Health Security and the White House is that states should not reopen until:

- There is a sustained reduction in COVID-19 cases for at least 14 days;
- Hospitals can treat all patients without resorting to crisis standards of care;
- The state can test all people with symptoms; and
- The state can monitor cases and trace their contacts.

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:26 PM

PLANNING: Use this time to make plans for the return. This might include training ushers, making masks that will be required for being in the church. How to measure out the required distance.

PLANNING: How will we plan for the restrictions in number of people who can gather? How to welcome and yet we cannot go over the number of people allowed into our spaces at safe distance.

From Hugh Stevenson to Everyone: 05:28 PM

What do we miss most on Sunday morning? For me its the bread and wine. we could have a delivery service!

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:29 PM

PHASES: Our return will be in phases, and likely will include some hybrid of online and in person worship and gathering.

From Debra Warwick-Sabino to Everyone: 05:31 PM

I have been asked to do an agape online service ... with bread and wine. Not the same but it will be of comfort to my people

From Andrea McMillin to Everyone: 05:34 PM

So, the short answer here ... we're not doing drive in services... (((smile)))
