

Fun Things to Do in Sacramento

Old Sacramento State Historic Park

http://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=497

3rd and J Streets, Sacramento, CA 95814

Old Sacramento Historic Park covers the entire area of the 1850's business district and became a National Historic Landmark in 1965. The buildings were built at the beginning of the Gold Rush and there are many historic buildings including the Eagle Theater. Throughout the years the waterfront in this area has seen both tragedy including fire and floods, to the success of raising the streets. The area now attracts visitors from across the globe who are keen to check out these fantastic 28 acres of park.

Crocker Art Museum

<https://www.crockerart.org/>

216 O Street, Sacramento, CA 95814

Originally this fine establishment was known as the E.B Crocker Art Gallery, it has since changed its name and is the longest continuously operating art museum in the west of America. There are a lot of works of art in the museum, dating from the Gold Rush to today. The museum opened its doors in 1871 and houses one of the largest collections of international ceramics in the U.S as well as much work from Asia, Africa and Europe. There is much to see and experience here and you easily spend an entire day wandering around the beautiful pieces.

Sacramento Zoo

<https://www.saczoo.org/>

3930 W Land Park Dr, Sacramento, CA 95822

The history of the Sacramento Zoo is fascinating as it shows how the zoo went from being "the little zoo in the park" to the large, impressive zoo that you will get to experience today. Initially the zoo was very small and housed about 40 animals that were collected from local parks. Now the zoo has 400 animals from all corners of the globe and focuses its energy on education, recreation and conservation. There is so much to see and experience here and the children especially, will thoroughly enjoy meeting all the animals.

Sutter's Fort | State Historic Park

http://www.parks.ca.gov/?page_id=485

2701 L St, Sacramento, CA 95816

Before the Gold Rush that changed the face of California forever, the community focused around Sutter's Fort. Created by John Sutter in 1839 the fort was a hive of activity until James W. Marshall an employee of the fort discovered the gold (about 45 miles east of the fort) that started the Californian Gold Rush, after this the fort was abandoned and left as it was. The fort has now been completely restored to its former glory and placed on the register of National Historic Landmarks. The main building of the fort is the two-story adobe structure, it was in that very building that the first gold was found that started the Gold Rush.

Fun Things to Do in Sacramento (cont.)

California State Capitol Museum

<http://capitolmuseum.ca.gov/>

1315 10th Street, Sacramento, CA 95814

Sitting right in the heart of Sacramento is the California State Capitol Museum, here you can see the best of California's history as well as its current active government buildings. You can get a guided tour around the museum as part of a group or you can walk around unaided, whichever suits you better. The whole building is stated as a museum but it is the basement and first floor where you will see the most interesting things.

Crest Theatre

<https://www.crestsacramento.com/>

1013 K St, Sacramento, CA 95814

The Crest Theatre first opened its doors over a hundred years ago in 1912 with the name Empress Theatre. Throughout the years the theater has had more than its fair share of drama both on the stage as well as off. None more famous than in 1946 when a marquee fell from the building a killed a bystander. The Theatre nowadays holds regular events, live shows and classic or specialty films. There is an annual even called The Trash Film Orgy which lasts for six weeks each summer where cult cinema and local films are played.

Paint Nite at Track 7 Brewing Company – Saturday, Nov. 9 at 1 PM

<https://www.yaymaker.com/us/ca/sacramento/2461/events/track-7-brewing-natomas/november-09/track-7-brewing-natomas-11-09-2019-10138866>

826 Professor Lane #100 (Natomas), Sacramento, CA

Grab your friends and unleash your inner artist at the Original Paint Nite. You'll go from a blank canvas to a masterpiece of your own, with plenty of laughs along the way. Guided by a talented and entertaining artist, you'll be amazed at what you create, and how much fun you have doing it. Instruction is provided by an expert host, so no experience is required, and everything you need is supplied. Grab your friends to paint, plant, tinker, and build—and give your week something to shout about.

The Art Critique Comedy Show at Sacramento Comedy Spot – Saturday, Nov. 9 at 7:30 PM

<https://embed.showclix.com/event/the-art-critique-comedy-show-110919>

1050 20th St Suite 130, Sacramento, CA 95811

San Francisco's hit, The Art Critique Comedy Show {comedians roasting thrift store art}, comes to Sacramento! Check out Cali's best comics pick apart five pieces of art, found at thrift stores, garage sales, flea markets, and sometimes right off the ground. Audience members are encouraged to go on stage and check out the art before the show begins!

For questions about convention, please visit norcalepiscopal.org/convention or email convention@norcalepiscopal.org.