

Cathedral and Cloud: Imagination and Unknowing

New Camaldoli Hermitage
Big Sur, California
February 20-22, 2015

(Space is limited, early reservations are suggested)

Explore with us approaches to the Divine through metaphor and analogy, form and formlessness, imaging and un-imaging, touching on the use of medieval monastic memory palaces, as well as the Cloud of Unknowing and John of the Cross. There will be opportunity for questions and discussion.

Suzanne Guthrie is an Episcopal priest, retreat director, author, and the curator of Soulwork Toward Sunday, a weekly self-guided retreat found at EdgeOfTheEnclosure.org. She lives in Woodstock, New York.

Robert Hale is a Camaldolese monk and priest, author, former professor at the Graduate Theological Union and prior at Incarnation Monastery and New Camaldoli. He lives at New Camaldoli.
