“Welcoming all, Celebrating God’s grace, Equipping the saints, Serving the world”: this is our mission statement, and it is the heart of our identity. We want a priest who will join us in this mission. Located in the largest city in the region, All Saints’ is a place of beauty, prayer, and community. We have a beautiful, new facility with recent upgrades to the organ, sanctuary, meeting spaces, and youth room. We share our facility with the community and love being connected to and serving those around us. Worship is the heart of who we are, and we want a priest who attends to thoughtful liturgy, celebrates our musical heritage, and enjoys the life of being a pastor, preacher, and teacher.

We seek a rector for All Saints’ Episcopal Church who is....

- An intellectually and spiritually challenging preacher who is thought-provoking, faithful to the Gospel story, and who aptly applies the message of Jesus Christ to daily life without political overtones. We enjoy discussing current events, but not in terms of partisan labels and opinions.
- A capable communicator and listener who values directness, clarity, and transparency, who is genuine, approachable, outgoing, open-minded, and comfortable interacting with people from all walks of life, professionally and socially, with diverse viewpoints.
- An ambassador who is comfortable stepping out into the interfaith and civic communities as a faith and social leader and who will strengthen our presence in these local communities.
- A pastor who is willing to walk with us on our faith journey, who will stand with others in times of celebration and sorrow, and whose comfort and counsel reminds us of God’s love and presence.
- An educator who is experienced with and committed to inspiring and incorporating children, youth, and families into the life of the congregation, recognizing that they are both the present and future church.
