

Personal Reflections
Mutual Ministry Review

While the primary focus of Mutual Ministry Review (MMR) is to reflect on our work as a community of faith, it is also a good time to consider our individual roles as leaders. This self-inventory poses some questions that are designed to help us identify our individual gifts and development needs as parish leaders.

What do you consider your strongest gifts (spiritual and temporal)?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

How can you best apply them in supporting our mission and achieve our goals?

What support do you need to best carry out your role as parish leader? Include skills and knowledge training needs, if appropriate.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

As a new vestry member, what might be a challenge for you in carrying out your responsibilities? _____

As a returning vestry member, what learnings from last year will you apply to your role on this year's vestry? _____
